
Fulton Ranch

Spring - Summer - Winter 2013 Internships

Fulton Ranch located in Miller, SD is seeking students who are interested in farming and ranching. Internships will provide the opportunity to work in all aspects of a progressive ranch and farm operation. Interns will be given the chance to work in multiple areas. This position is preferred to interns willing to work with other employees, a hard work ethic and an interest in ranching and farming. Fulton Ranch based out of Miller, SD operates 1,800 head of commercial cattle on numerous range pastures and maintains 12,000 acres of crops. Internships are flexible around college curriculum and other activities.

Benefits:

Paid Internship
Housing and Utilities Provided
Rodeo Oriented

Description:

Farm Internship
Ranch Apprenticeship
Calving Internship

Duties:

- Cattle Work: Oversee the health management and balance and adjust rations of horses and cattle. Administer vaccinations, reproduction techniques; assist with artificial insemination, calving, and pregnancy diagnosis. Preconditioning and marketing cattle for sale. Operate heavy machinery; fence construction, maintenance and repair, and various other duties as necessary. Riding Horses, Sorting, Pairing, Tagging, Calving, Doctoring, Branding, Processing Calves, Feeding, Caring for and Checking Cattle etc.
- Maintenance: Repairs, Fencing, Operating Heavy Machinery, etc.
- Farming: Planting, Harvesting, Field Work, etc
.Among other duties as necessary.

For more information call Mark Fulton: (605)204-0071
